

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota relies upon the training and expertise of its physicians to help maintain the excellent health and well-being of our citizens; and,

WHEREAS, One special doctor, a 1950 graduate of the University of Iowa, deserves our congratulations on this, his retirement day from state government; and,

WHEREAS, This doctor, whose name is Robert Hayes, has served South Dakota and his country for a total of 34 years and nine months; and,

WHEREAS, Robert Hayes has been a General Practitioner, a Medical Officer, a Professor of Clinical Medicine, a Director, and Secretary of the South Dakota Department of Health in such diverse locations as Winner, South Dakota and Nha Trang, South Vietnam; Vermillion, South Dakota and Pierre; and,

WHEREAS, Doctor Robert Hayes has used his vast knowledge of medicine to abate the suffering of others as well as increase the understanding of his peers; and,

WHEREAS, Doctor Hayes has received many awards, but the greatest reward is the one he unselfishly gave to South Dakota by way of his enormous talent and his gifted intelligence:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 9, 1982, as

DOCTOR ROBERT HAYES DAY

In South Dakota, and I urge all segments of the Department of Health to recognize the contributions which Robert Hayes has made to the betterment of health in our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUIDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
